Six New Shreveport Police Vehicles Ready to Hit Streets Saturday

Six new police vehicles will be released on the streets Saturday morning. The Shreveport Police Department informed Mayor Ollie Tyler at 6:30 p.m. today that those vehicles are now completely outfitted and tested.

"We will continue to release vehicles as they are ready," said Mayor Tyler. "We want to get them on the streets as quickly as possible."

The 2016 Ford Interceptor SUVs were purchased by the department as part of a $3.5 million equipment financing package approved by Mayor Tyler and the Council in the budget for 2016.
